

Madjid Samii, M.D., Ph.D.

President of the International Neuroscience Institute (INI) at Otto-von-Guericke-University
President of China INI
Chairman (Retired) of Neurosurgical Departments
Hannover School of Medicine and Klinikum Hannover Nordstadt
Honorary President of the World Federation of Neurosurgical Societies

International Neuroscience Institute (INI)
Rudolf-Pichlmayr-Str. 4 D-30625 Hannover
Phone: ++49-511-27092-700 Fax: -706 e-mail: Samii@ini-hannover.de

Curriculum Vitae

- 1957 – 1963 Medical School University of Mainz, Germany, including second study of biology
- 1970 Associate Professor and Vice Director of Neurosurgical Department, University of Mainz
- 1971 Professor of Neurosurgery
- 1977 - 2002 Director of Neurosurgical Department Nordstadt Hospital Hannover
- 1996 - 2002 Director of the Neurosurgical Departments at Hannover School of Medicine and Klinikum Hannover Nordstadt
- 1997 – 2001 President of the World Federation of Neurosurgical Societies (WFNS)
- 1998 – 2005 Founder and first President of WFNS Foundation
- July 2000 President of the International Neuroscience Institute (INI)
Inauguration on 21 July, 2000
- Sept 2001 Honorary President of WFNS
- July 2004 Nomination as President of the China International Neuroscience Institute at the Capital University of Medical Sciences in Peking, China
- Since 2005 Honorary President of WFNS Foundation
- 2011 Founder and President of the Iran International Neuroscience Institute
- Since 2012 WFNS-Ambassador for Africa

Honorary doctors and professors of 14 universities

Honorary and/or corresponding member of 71 national and international scientific societies.

Editor of 15 neurosurgical books and more than 500 publications on peripheral nerves, spinal tumors and syringomyelia, skull base pathology , brain tumors, cranial nerve disorders, pain

More than 1000 lectures as Invited and/or Honoured Guest of numerous national and international congresses.