

CV Prof. Dr. med. J. Voges, M.D., Ph.D.

Present Position

since 2008 Professor for Stereotactic Neurosurgery, Otto-von-Guericke University, Magdeburg
Director, Department of Stereotactic Neurosurgery, University Hospital Magdeburg
Associate Scientist, Leibniz Institute for Neurobiology (LIN), Magdeburg

Education / previous academic positions

1984 - 1985 Resident, Dept. of Neurosurgery, Benjamin-Franklin University Hospital, Berlin
1985 - 1988 Resident, Dept. of Neurosurgery, University of Heidelberg
1988 - 2007 Resident and Senior Consultant, Dept. of Stereotaxy and Functional Neurosurgery, University of Cologne
1991 - 1993 Research Associate, Max-Planck-Institute for Neurological Research, Dept. of Experimental Neurology, Köln
2004 - 2008 Associate Professor for Neurosurgery, University of Cologne, Germany

Main areas of interest

Functional Stereotaxy (Movement Disorders, Epilepsy, Pain), Neurooncology (Brachytherapy, Radiosurgery)

Memberships

- German Society for Neurosurgery
- European Society for Stereotactic and Functional Neurosurgery (Executive Committee)
- World Society for Stereotactic and Functional Neurosurgery (since 2005 Board of Directors)
- Neuro-oncological Study Group (NOA), German Cancer Society
- Study Group „Deep Brain Stimulation“ e.V. (Executive Committee)
- German Center for Neurodegenerative Diseases (DZNE), Site Magdeburg (Board of Directors)

Publications (last updated March 2016)

Original articles in peer reviewed journals: 121
Reviews: 13
Book chapters: 26